Frequently Asked Questions – E-Filing

❖ E-Filing

1. What is E-Filing?

Electronic filing or E-filing is the ability to file forms and submissions online with the Ontario Labour Relations Board (“OLRB”).

2. Who can use E-Filing?

Anyone can E-file with an internet connection and a valid email address. Review the section below on System Requirements.

3. How much does E-Filing cost?

There is no cost to e-file.
Construction industry referrals of grievances continue to require a fee payment regardless of the method of filing.

4. When can I use E-Filing?

You can file your form or submissions online 24 hours a day, seven days a week. In accordance with the OLRB’s Rules of Procedure a filing received after 5.00 p.m. will be deemed to be filed on the next business day, unless otherwise accepted by the OLRB or the Registrar.

5. Is E-Filing mandatory?

Yes. As a result of the current health situation and government advice, all Board forms and other submissions and material must be filed through the Board’s e-filing process, not regular email, courier, hand delivery or fax.

6. Can a Representative (legal or not) E-file on behalf of a client?

Yes. There is a section in the forms for the party’s contact person to be identified.

7. Where can I find the Forms and in what format are they?

Forms are available in English and in French in PDF format and can be found on the OLRB website.

❖ System Requirements for E-filing

8. What are the technical requirements for using E-Filing?

You must have an internet connection and a valid email address and up-to-date Adobe Acrobat in order to submit your form online.

9. Can I complete the form using my mobile device such as smartphone or tablet?

No. Currently, the version of Adobe Acrobat used on mobile devices is incompatible with the OLRB E-filing system.

10. What is the software required to view and complete the PDF forms online?

Download and complete the OLRB forms using ONLY an up-to-date version of Adobe Acrobat.

Do not complete the forms within your Internet browser as you may encounter some of the following issues:

- You may not be able to attach documents, print or submit the form.
- You will lose the information you completed if you leave the form and browse to other web pages in the same browser window.
- The 'back' or 'forward' buttons on your browser will close the form and delete all of your entered information.

If the form opens in your internet browser, save it, then close the form that is open in the browser and then reopen your saved form using Adobe software.

The latest version of Adobe reader is available for free and can be downloaded from the following website: <http://www.adobe.com/products/acrobat/readstep.html>.

11. How do I check which version of Adobe Acrobat I am using?

Open Adobe Acrobat, click on 'Help' from the menu bar and then click on 'About Adobe Acrobat'

❖ Printing the Form

12. Can I print a Blank Form and complete it by hand?

Yes. To print a blank form use only the 'Print Blank Form' button located at the top right corner of the form

13. Is there a difference between the 'Print' buttons on the form? Which one should I use and when?

Yes. The different Print buttons print the form in different ways and to different points in the form.

- 'Print Blank Form' Button is used to print a blank form and expands all hidden sections. This blank form is the one to complete by hand.
- The Print button on the 'Documents to be Delivered' page prints the form up to the 'Documents to be Delivered' page. The form should be printed using this button when you are printing a copy to be delivered to the other parties in the proceeding (and before completing the Certificate of Delivery).
- The Print button located at the bottom of the 'File with the Board' page prints the entire form. This button is used to print the entire completed form, including the completed Certificate of Delivery, to be filed with the OLRB or for your records.

14. Can I print the attachments using the 'Print' buttons located within the form?

No. Any documents attached to the form will not be printed by the 'Print' buttons. Attached documents should be opened and printed separately.

15. Other than the 'Print' buttons in the form, can I print another way?

No. Do not use other printing options such as File > Print, Adobe print icon, CTRL P or other 'print' buttons located within the form. This will result in printing an incomplete form.

❖ Save Form

16. Can I save the form directly from the OLRB website without viewing it?

Yes. You can save a form from the OLRB website without viewing it by right-clicking on the hyperlinked form title, selecting "Save As" and then saving the blank form to your computer.

Attach supporting documents to the form by uploading them into the 'Attached Documents' section of each form.

No. There is no limit on the number of the documents that can be attached to the E-form provided the total size of all the attached documents is less than or equal to 7MB.

If you wish to delete a party click the '-' minus sign.

In instances where there are multiple individuals from the same organization (for example, multiple union representatives or multiple lawyers at the same law firm), you are not required to complete an additional contact section for any subsequent individual. 34. Will the OLRB return my electronically submitted form back to me?

No. Save a copy of your form and all attachments prior to submitting as the OLRB will not return them to you.

35. What happens after I click submit?

You will be getting a final reminder message to print or save your form. When you decide to proceed, you will get this message.

Do not close your form at this point or your submission will be interrupted. Wait until you get a confirmation that the submission is successful.

36. How do I know if my form has been E- filed successfully?

After submitting the form, a confirmation message will be displayed on your computer screen. This confirmation message will be the indication of your successful submission.

You will also receive an email at the email address you provided in the 'File with the Board' page, which will confirm that the OLRB has received your submission. This email will include a confirmation number. If you do not receive a confirmation email within one hour, please contact the OLRB during business hours.

37. Is the confirmation number in the confirmation email the same as the OLRB's Confirmation of Filing?
